2017 SPRING SAILING PROGRAM

KEEP THIS PAGE FOR YOUR REFERENCE

Course Description

The Spring Training sailing course for adults consists of three classroom sessions and three on-the-water sessions. The classroom sessions cover basic sailing theory and nomenclature, including: parts of a sailboat, rigging, how to make a sailboat sail, and basic knots. The on-the-water sessions provide hands-on experience under the guidance of an instructor and include rigging and unrigging, trimming sails, the different points of sail, time at the helm, and approaching a mooring and a dock.

Classroom Sessions: When & Where

All Classroom Sessions are held at the Fair Haven Youth Center. The Youth Center is on Fisk Street in Fair Haven, attached to the rear of the Fair Haven police station. Directions: From River Road turn south onto Cedar Ave. at the Sunoco Service Station. Make the first possible left turn (east) onto Fisk Street. Turn right into the parking lot next to the police station.

Thursday June 1, 2017 7:30 – 9:30 pm
Thursday June 8, 2017 7:30 – 9:30 pm
Thursday June 15, 2017 7:30 – 9:30 pm

On-The-Water Sessions: When & Where

All on-the-water sessions are held at the River Rats Facilities at the end of Battin Road. Directions: From River Road turn north onto Battin Road next to the fire house, and continue to the end of the road (the road bends to the right near the end) to the River Rats parking lot at the end.

Saturday June 3, 2017 9:00 am – 12:00 Noon
Saturday June 10, 2017 9:00 am – 12:00 Noon
Saturday June 17, 2017 9:00 am – 12:00 Noon

Note: Students must have their own life jackets (personal flotation devices) for the on-the-water sessions.
